Case 37-RC-4093

LABORERS' INTERNATIONAL UNION
OF NORTH AMERICA, LOCAL 368, AFL-CIO

Petitioner

ERRATUM

The Employer filed a Request for Review dated February 7, 2005,¹ regarding the Decision and Direction of Election that I issued on January 27 in the above-captioned case. I am treating the Employer's request as a motion for reconsideration. On January 20, the Parties entered into a Post-Hearing Joint Stipulation that, among other things, specified the appropriate collective-bargaining unit. Through inadvertence, the Decision and Direction of Election did not reflect the Parties' stipulation with complete accuracy. Accordingly, I hereby modify the unit description that appears in number 5 of the Decision and Direction of Election to read as follows:

All regular full-time and regular part-time Ships Maintenance Worker I, Ships Maintenance Worker II, Laborer I, Laborer II, and Laborer III employees employed by the Employer in the State of Hawaii; excluding all other employees, clerical employees, confidential employees, guards and/or watchpersons, managers, and supervisors, including Project Manager, Maintenance Manager, Assistant Maintenance Manager, Electrician Foreman, Equipment/Machine Foreman, Shipfitter Foreman, Ships Maintenance Manager, Ships Maintenance Leader, Ships Maintenance Crew Leader I, and Ships Maintenance Crew Leader II, as defined by the Act.

¹ All other dates also refer to 2005.

DATED at San Francisco, California, this 14th day of February, 2005.
